

About Sandip Group of Institutions

Sandip Group of Institutions set up its first campus in Nashik in the year 2008. Until 2015, Sandip Group of Institutions was affiliated with All India Council of Technical Education, and Savitribai Phule Pune University.

In 2016, the Government of Maharashtra bestowed the title of "University" upon Sandip Group of Institutions and this marked the inception of Sandip University. Sandip University is recognised by the University Grants Commission (UGC).

Sandip Group of Institutions mainly comprises two Universities, Sandip University located in Nashik (Maharashtra), and Sandip University in Sijoul, Madhubani (Bihar).

Sandip University's Nashik campus is a charming location spread across 250+ acres, making it the perfect setting for a futuristic educational institution. Sandip University's 100+ acre Sijoul campus is a premier hub of higher education.
